

Suzanne Caragianis

Suzanne Caragianis is an Occupational Therapist who has specialised in the treatment of hand and upper limb injuries over the past 30 years. Suzanne set up her own hand therapy practice in Adelaide 25 years ago, she has recently had Michael Janetzki join her as a Partner at SA Hand Therapy. She qualified as a Certified Hand Therapist in the USA in 1991 and has now recertified on 3 occasions. She is a full member of the Australian Hand Therapy Association and American Hand Therapy Association and is an Adjunct Clinical Lecturer with University of South Australia.

She has worked in the UK, USA and Switzerland in hand and upper limb trauma and has been running “Helping Hands in Bhutan” for 8 years taking therapists and surgeons to undertake volunteer work.

She has been an invited speaker at the International Hand Therapy Meetings held in Canada, Turkey and India. She was the keynote speaker at New Zealand Hand Therapy meeting and has also lectured in USA, Canada and Switzerland. She is currently one of the Mentors for AHTA. Recently she was awarded the AHTA Founders Lecture Award in recognition of her contribution to hand therapy in Australia and Internationally.

Suzanne has a special interest in nerve compressions in the upper limb.